

Shirley Dorsey

June 11, 1935 - September 29, 2018

Shirley Ann Dorsey (called “Gan Gan” by her grandchildren) was born June 11, 1935 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 29, 2018 after a lengthy illness.

Shirley gave her life to Christ at a young age. She was baptized and confirmed at Saint James Episcopal Church in Baltimore, Maryland. She enjoyed visiting Trinity Life Church with her sister Louise every Sunday until her illness prevented her from attending.

Shirley was educated in the Baltimore City School system. Although she was a single mother, she had a wonderful life. She retired from St. Agnes Hospital housekeeping department. She enjoyed going to Lexington Market after she retired. She also enjoyed going to Golden Corral and getting dessert to finish off a good meal. Shirley was very independent, and she took the bus whenever she wanted to go.

Shirley was quiet, shy, soft-spoken and extremely nice to everyone. She was also a good cook and fed everybody.

Shirley had a very special relationship, who was a gift to her life in the form of her sister Louise Thomas. Louise would take Shirley to social gathering, cookouts, holiday gatherings with family and friends, doctors’ appointments and anywhere she needed to go.

Shirley was preceded in death by her daughter Deborah Dorsey, her mother and father Bernice and Joseph Dorsey, her grandmother Mary Slocum who raised her after her mother’s death, her sister Alice Moore, brothers-in-law Thomas Moore and Tom Thomas, and her niece and nephew Carolyn Chambers and William Dorsey. She leaves to cherish her memory her children Sheila Ferguson, Rodney Hamilton and Kevin Flowers, Sr., who was a devoted caregiver to his Mom; twelve grandchildren, Dante, Denisha, Ray, Quandra, Kiya, Cheniel, Rodney Jr., Andre, Joseph, Kevin Jr., Brandon, and Erica; several great grandchildren; sisters, Louise Thomas, Mary Davis, Marian Harper, and Barbara Dorsey; brothers, James Dorsey and Leon Dorsey; two nephews, Adrian Shields and Alfred Hill; niece, Therese Shields; special friends Jesse Brady and Elder Judy Lawrence who invited her to many special occasions.
