“ Please accept my sincere condolences. The death of a loved one is truly a bitter pill to swallow, and so hard to come to grips with. Fortunately we have a loving heavenly father, and close friends who really care about what we are going through. But only Jehovah can put an end to sickness and death, and he has promised to do so in the very near future. Rev 21,4 promises, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. Then those in the grave will be brought back to life. Daniel 12,2 says, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, as well as Acts 24:15 which promises that there will be a ressurection of the dead. So rest assured, Jehovah God has wonderful things in store for obedient people who love him, and his son Jesus. Please find comfort in the hope of the ressurection, and many your precious memories be a comfort to you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
