November 20, 1929 - March 17, 2014

SHIRLEY FORD, daughter of the late Mary and Charles Ford, was born on November 20, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 17, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in Baltimore City and she graduated from Dunbar High School in 1948. She was employed with the Baltimore City Public School System until her retirement in 1992. While working in the school system, she was an active member of the Teachers Union. Shirley encouraged everyone to get a good education.

Shirley gave her life to God at an early age. She loved reading her Bible (Psalms 37 she loved to read). She also loved to travel and go to plays and dinner theaters.

Shirley was a loving mother, daughter, sister and friend, who always put other's needs before hers.

She leaves to mourn: two sons, Vincent Fields and Daryl Ford (Keith Ford preceded her in death); loving daughter, Juel Streeter; son-in-law, Eugene Streeter; sister, Hilda Langley; sister-in-law, Marie Ford; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives (including special cousin, Beatrice Putman) and friends.

“ To the Ford Family,
I just wanted to share news with you that will bring you comfort. The bible tells us at 1 John 4:8 that God is love. So a God of love does not want us unhappy. He tells us at Acts 24:15 that He is going to bring about a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. So we can see our loved ones again. Titus 1:2 says God cannot lie so He has promised us and we know that it will happen. How wonderful! Well I hope this information has been of comfort to you. Please e-mail me with any questions or comments.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies its very painful. But the Bible talks about God doing away with pain at Rev 21:4. May the God of comfort provide solace to your family at this time.
