

Shirley Fowlkes

January 29, 1944 - October 1, 2002

Shirley Fowlkes, the daughter of the late Edith Rawls, was born on January 29, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools. She departed this earth on October 1, 2002 after several long and lengthy illnesses. She was a warm, loving, funny and caring person. She leaves to mourn: three daughters, Beatrice Walters, Melissa Ball and Carolyn Mitchell; three sons, Norman Walters, Harold Mitchell and Nathaniel Ball; one brother, Norman Carter; one sister, Sandra Williams; seven grandchildren, Kenneth Worrell, Tarsha Martin, Rickey Hall, Riccole Hall, Rickey Cornish, Brittany Burton, Dawayne Burton, Eric Johnson and Breonna Jenkins; two great-grandchildren, Damien McCleod and Emanuel Henrickques; several nieces and nephews and a host of family and friends. A special thanks to brother, Norman Carter for being more than a brother. We also thank William Fowlkes for being her companion and friend.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
