

Shirley Francine Goldman

April 21, 1952 - April 21, 2003

Shirley F. Goldman, daughter of Mary Goodman and William Russell Goldman, was born on April 21, 1952. She departed this life on April 21, 2003, it was her 51st birthday, after a lengthy illness. Shirley was raised in the 500 block. of N. Stricker Street, where she attended Baltimore City Public Schools. She was a 1972 graduate of the Houston-Woods High School. Shirley was a very quite, loving and caring mother. She worked very hard to take care of her two sons, whom she loved so dearly. Shirley rededicated herself with Christ early in 2001. When she was in her early 20's she directed the youth and young adult Choir at New Shiloh Baptist Church, where she was baptized as a child. Shirley, touched the lives of many people she came across. For several years now Shirley joined a circle of friends who call themselves, The Women's Group. They will miss talking to her on their three-way Hooks-ups at least talking to one another five times a day some days. Shirley leaves to mourn: two very loving, caring and devoted sons, Keith Dailey, Sr., and Andrew Cannon, Jr., her mother; Mary Goodman, father; William Russell Goldman, three brothers, James Barnes, John Jr. (deceased), Edgar Barnes, and Charles Barnes, two sisters; Alisha Beverley and Romelle Goodman, two grandchildren; Kanisha Dailey and Keith Dailey, Jr., six nieces and four nephews, one soon to be daughter-in-law, Consuela R. brown and a host of aunts, uncles, relatives, family and friends.
