

Shirley S. Frazier

October 28, 1941 - October 21, 2019

Shirley Sue Wilborne-Frazier; 77 went home to be with the LORD on Monday, October 21, 2019 while at home with her husband and her niece, Wanda.

She was born October 23, 1941 in Scooba, MS to Walter Brown and the late Essie Mae Pennington. She moved to Ingram Branch, West Virginia at an early age. She received her education in the Fayette County Public School system. She was selected as one of the elite students to attend DuBois Junior High School Mount Hope, West Virginia and she later attended and graduated from Collins High School Oak Hill, West Virginia. She was a loving wife, mother, mother in law, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend/ While living in West Virginia, she met her first love at the age of 12 the late Deacon (SFC) Ronald A. Wilborne and was united in marriage on September 11, 1965; he preceded her in death on September 17, 1997. From this union they were blessed with three children Dwayne, Dreidre and Derek.

Shirley gave her life to the LORD at an early age where she attended Ingram Grove Baptist Church until she relocated to Greentown, West Virginia. She attended Greentown Missionary Baptist Church until she married Ronald and the army took them abroad. They later settled in Glen Burnie, Maryland where she continued her walk in Christ at Friendship Missionary Baptist Church under the pastorate of Pastor Pierre German. While in attendance, she served on the usher board. Ushering for the LORD was her joy and giving the

Welcome to newcomers. The LORD lead them to New Life International Ministries also known as New Life Fellowship Baptist Church under the pastorate of Pastor Essie Ford after the Lord CALLED Ronald home. Shirley loved the LORD and could quote the books of the bible forward and backwards. She practically knew almost every scripture.

After losing her first love, she was blessed to fall in love for the second time to Clarence E. Frazier. After marrying Clarence on November 12, 2011, she became a faithful and devoted member of the Elim Baptist Church of Temple Hills, MD under the pastorate of Pastor Rodney E. Ruffin until God whispered in her ear and called her home. Shirley always said, "That it was rare to fall in love with one great man and marry him, but the LORD had truly blessed her with two. "She referred to him as "Her Sweetie" and he referred to her as his "Rose."

Shirley's heart was centered around her family, especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She enjoyed the times that the family would gather together in love. She taught them to keep "God in the center of everything they did, to love one another, cherish family, how to cook, life lessons and to take a stand for what they believed in or wanted. Anyone that knew Shirley loved her and has a memory that they have experienced. She was a loving, caring vital part of their family.

Shirley was preceded in death by her son on August 4, 2008 of Glen Burnie, MD Dwayn L. Wilborne (Kamili), she left to cherish her loving memory: husband of Fort Washington, MD, Clarence E. Frazier, daughter of Glen Burnie, MD Dreidre M. Cuffey (Gilbert), son of Baltimore, MD Derek A. Wilborne (Latisha); grandchildren; Rashaun Corbin (Brittany), Devon Wilborne, Kei-Andre Wilborne, Ronald Wilborne, Bella Wilborne; Great-Grandchildren; Keiana Wilborne, Madelyn Corbin, Rashaun Corbin Jr, Jeremiah Wilborne; brother of Harlem, NY Walter Brown; niece who she helped raise of Bronx, NY Wanda Hill (Andrea), Godson Valous Haywood, God Granddaughter Taylor Reed and a host of nieces, nephews and close friends.

“ Aunt Shirley, you were the piece that kept the family together. You brought all the cousins down to your house and showed us a different lifestyle. You kept us all grounded. You made sure we were in church and we knew the word. You were a feisty woman but you were also a giving woman. You bent over backward for your family when each of us was in need. I'm going to miss the conversations and advice. I'm going to miss the phone calls Manda this your Aunt Shirley call me back. I wish I had one more phone call just to hear you call me sweetie pie again and for me to tell you how much I love you. Until we meet again. Amanda
