

Shirley C. Gardner

May 23, 1936 - January 8, 2018

SHIRLEY CATHERINE GARDNER, daughter of the late John Henry Robinson and the late Mary Helen Henson, was born on May 23, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was called home to be with the Lord after a short illness.

Shirley received her education in the Baltimore City Public school System.

In 1957, she was blessed with a baby girl, Wanda D. Maull. Shirley entered matrimony to the late Robert L. Gardner on June 20, 1964. From this union, her baby boy Ron L. Gardner was born.

She worked at Southern Uniform Co. and later pursued a career in child care. Everyone knows Shirley loved the kids. She spent years servicing her community as a day care provider and also retired in this field.

Shirley's smile would light up the room. She was always tickled about something. Shirley had numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone she knew. Shirley loved her family and she was a firm believer in putting her family first. Anytime that you needed her she was merely a phone call away.

Shirley leaves behind devoted family and friends to mourn her passing: her two children, daughter, Wanda D. Maull and son, Ron L. Gardner; four grandchildren, DeJuan Braxton, Tarrell Gardner, Darrell Gardner and Ronisha Gardner; three great-grandchildren, Aiyanna, Avianna, and Journey Gardner; sisters-in-law, Mildred Gardner and Delcy Hall; life-long partner/cousin, Pauline Henson; three godchildren, Corey Hill, Keisha and Keisean; longtime friends, Pamela, Constance and Rosalee; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

In 1970, Shirley gave her life to Christ and served as a faithful member of St. Luke United Methodist Church. She served on the usher board under the leadership of Mr. Earl Fields. Also, she served as a member of the stewardess board. Shirley took her stewardship to heart. She brought up three generations amongst others in the back pew of St. Luke United Methodist Church. It was one thing Shirley wanted anyone to know it was that God is always the answer and He will see you through.

“ Dear Family

Our sincere condolences are extended to you at this Your time of loss .

Shirley was a faithful member of St Luke UMC, and a good supporter.

Words cannot express to you the loss of a loved one, but Jesus by grace of the Holy Spirit can give you a comfort that surpasses anything that words cannot utter.

Be blessed today and the coming days as you remember Shirley, a mother, grandmother and friend.

Dejeun. May you and your family find comfort in knowing that your grandmother is in the arms of God. I know you loved your gmom (as you so fondly called her. I saw the passion and concern daily. God bless you for all you did. She was very lucky to have had such a Grandson. You all are in my prayers. Vanessa

“ Dear Gardner Family,

My name is Siniyah and I am very sorry for your loss. I would like to share a scripture with you from Isaiah 35:5,6, “At that time the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped. At that time the lame will leap like the deer, and the tongue of the speechless will shout for joy. For waters will burst forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert plain.”

*Sincerely,
Siniyah*

Dejeun,

*"There's never a teardrop that God doesn't see.
He knows when a sparrow falls from a tree.
There's never a moment when God doesn't care.
Never a time when he won't hear our prayer." (Anonymous)*

I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your beloved grandmother; and I want you to know that you & your family are covered in prayer.
