

Shirley Hooper

December 1, 1926 - January 6, 2005

Shirley Foster Hooper, daughter of the late Emma Johnson and Richard Foster, was born on December 1, 1926 in Jacksonville, Florida. She departed this life on January 6, 2005. She was the sixth of nine children. She received her Bachelor of Arts Degree from Bennett College in Greensboro, North Carolina. Upon completion of her education, she married Harold A. Hooper and they moved to New York City. Out of this union, two children were born, Tyrone and Debra. Shirley went on to pursue her career as a teacher in New Jersey until her retirement. Shirley taught children of all ages, K-12 grades, and she received special certification to work with children with special needs. She lived a very full life with so many people who loved and admired her. She leaves to mourn: her son, Tyrone and daughter, Debra; her grandchildren, Baaqia Holloway, Shadia Holloway, Rami Holloway, Margo Honesty, Shomari Hooper, Bomani Hooper, Fatimah Hooper and Alana Jackson; her great-grandchildren, Briya Holloway, Cameron Holloway, Zariah Callahan, Shomari Hooper Jr., Bomani Hooper Jr. and Mashari Hooper; sisters, Gloria Barnes and Katherine Perry; brother, William Foster; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family, my deepest condolences. May you cherish his memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
