

Shirley Hopewell

June 17, 1935 - August 14, 2005

SHIRLEY HOPEWELL better known as "Shirl," was born June 17, 1935 in Baltimore, Maryland. She suddenly departed this life on August 14, 2005. She was the youngest of nine children born to the late Gertrude Chavis and William Brown. In her early years she received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. Soon after, she met and married the late Paul Thomas Hopewell. From that union they had eleven children. She attended Cherry Hill United Methodist Church for over twenty years. Shirley Hopewell was very active in the church. She served on the choir, Church Wide Study, National Campaign for Tolerance, Altar Guild, was teacher of Vacation Bible School and many other programs in Baltimore City. She was a gifted person when it came to unselfishly availing herself to the needs of others. She would always listen and help neighbors and friends with grief and problems. She was loving and caring, always concerned of other's needs before her own. She loved everybody unconditionally. She always had a good word to say and a smile on her face. Most of all a loving heart of gold. She leaves to cherish her memory: three sisters, Genieve Dorsey, Bernice Robinson and Gertrude Smith; brother, Walter Edmonds; eight children, Pauline Hopewell, Karen Hopewell, James Hopewell, Denise Hopewell, Debra Hopewell, Ricky Hopewell, George Hopewell and Cynthia Hopewell; two daughters-in-law, Hilda Hopewell and Carolyn Hopewell; son-in-law, Bruce Bayton; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by son Michael Hopewell and daughter Carlita Hopewell, three sisters, Elizabeth Kato, Jean McSwain and Margret McSwain; and two brothers, Bernard McSwain and Edward McSwain.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort and solace from God's Word the Bible. John 5:28,29 is one such passage- "for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice and come out, those who have done good will rise to live." We hope this proves to be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##ANGEL & ADA MATOS##imported-end##
