

Shirley Jones

July 11, 1937 - August 1, 2003

It was a glorious day when the Lord blessed my parents to born a beautiful sister on July 11, 1937, they named her Shirley Owens. My parents have since gone home to be with our Lord along with my brothers, Robert and John Owens. Although her Christian Journey was limited, because she rarely attended the house of worship, but Shirley had strong belief in the Lord. So let me share with you some loving memories of her life. Shirley was born July 11, 1937 in Greenville, South Carolina. As a young lady, she met and fell in love with William T. Jones and blessed their marriage with five children Juliet, William Jr., Anthony, deceased son Eric and Wanda. Shirley was a strong believer in unity. Shirley was a giving person, starting from her early years with her younger siblings and continued on in her life with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Around the beginning of the year, Shirley took ill without her family's knowledge. Shirley tried everything possible, never complaining and always with a smile and reassured everyone that (it is well with her soul). However the Lord had another plan, he wanted to build her another house, where her spirit would have eternal rest and peace. So you see another glorious day on August 1, 2003. Shirley answered her call from the Lord and Savior who told her my house has many mansions. Shirley you can come home now I have prepared a place for you. Shirley leaves to celebrate her life and cherish her memory: husband, William T. Jones, Sr.; children, Juliet, William Jr., Anthony and Wanda; one sister, Gloria Johnson; two daughters-in-law, Mildred and Bernadette, known as Angel; one sister-in-law, Alice Williams; nine grandchildren six great-grandchildren a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

“ To The Jones Family, I am sorry to read about the loss of your love one. Death is man's enemy. You spend years and time developing relationships, and friendships with each other. Only to lose them to death. I found comfort in the scriptures, at John 11:25, Jesus says in part "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies will come to life." I look forward to those words of our Lord Jesus to be fulfilled, as well as all the other words found in the Bible. I hope that prove to be solace for you in this difficult time.##imported-begin##Julia Brown##imported-end##
