

Shirley M. Eason

September 11, 1941 - November 28, 2002

Shirley Mae Eason, A.K.A. "LOU", daughter of Anna Frances Alston and the late Willie L. Alston, was born on September 11, 1941 in Halifax County, North Carolina. She departed this life on November 28, 2002, after a lengthy illness. Shirley was baptized at an early age at Israel Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. E.D. Meade. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and continued at the Baltimore City Welding School. After completion she became one of the first women to be employed at Bethlehem Steel Shipyard. Shirley made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was a people person who loves family and friends dearly, and left a lasting impression and genuinely fond memories in the hearts of so many people. Shirley loved life and lived it with style, imagination and determination. She enjoyed the finer things in life and was very generous, taking pleasure in giving. Shirley believed that dreams come true, if she dreamed it, she went forward and made it a reality. She leaves to mourn: her mother, Anna Frances Alston; two sisters, Lela Hughes and Francine Ball; two brothers, James and Ronald Alston; ten nieces, four nephews; Jasmine, her beloved cat, a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Shirley M. Eason

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Shirley M. Eason

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Loving counsin##imported-begin##John Heartwell##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Friend forever##imported-begin##Floyd Armstrong##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Christian Harper Cheyney Harper##imported-begin##Karen Crum##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ But God hath promise strenght for the day##imported-begin##Linda Grey##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Unfailing sympathy##imported-begin##Jerome Lee##imported-end## ”

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM