

Shirley Mae Baird

August 20, 1952 - October 6, 2001

Shirley May Baird, daughter of the late Paul and Dora Spence was born on August 20, 1952 in Baltimore, Md. She was called home to be with the Lord on October 6, 2001. Plummy as she was affectionately known, was educated in the Baltimore City School System. She graduated as an honors student from Dunbar Senior High and went on to attend the University of Maryland at College Park. It was there that she met and married her husband Anthony Baird, on September 17, 1977. That joyous union was blessed with four lovely children. Shirley began her career at the Social Security Administration in 1973. She worked until December 2001, when her health declined. Shirley accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior during her college years. She served willingly and faithfully at Ekklesia Bible Chapel as a member of the choir, a Sunday school teacher, youth leader, counselor and member of the sick and shut-in committee. She has indeed fought the good fight. Shirley was a devoted and loving wife and mother who loved to sing, read, garden and most of all she loved to laugh. Shirley was well loved and leaves to cherish her memory, her loving and devoted husband Anthony Sr., four loving children, Lydia Dora, Christina Epsie, Rebekah Jan and Anthony Jr.; one sister, Theresa; three brothers, Miles, Earl and Milton; a devoted sister-in-law, Jan Baird-Adams; one brother –in-law, Lester Adams; and a dedicated caring father and mother-in-law, Tread and Epsie Baird; and host of nieces, nephews and friends.
