

Shirley Mae Turner

January 8, 1936 - April 30, 2008

Shirley Mae Turner was born to the late Edward and Mulvina Walker Turner on January 8, 1936 in Barnwell County, South Carolina. God called her home on April 30, 2008 at the age of 72. She received her early education from South Carolina Public School system, including Schofield High School in Aiken, South Carolina. Around the age of 20 she left the South to begin her lifelong residence in Baltimore, MD. Shirley retired as a cook from the Baltimore Public School System in 1995. During her tenure, she also worked part time as a nursing assistant at several nursing facilities and hospitals. After retirement, she entered into private duty nursing specializing in new baby nurse care. In her life she had a sharp tongue, giving spirit and an abiding faith love and trust in the Lord. At an early age she accepted Christ and was baptized at the Four Mile Baptist Church in Aiken, South Carolina. Her last church home was the Central Baptist Church in Baltimore, MD. Shirley was predeceased by her two brothers Theordice and Edward Turner, one sister Vera Dunbar and her only son Harold "Butch" Turner. She leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Patricia Hill; one daughter-in-law Mona Turner; four grandchildren: Kelvin Young, Monique Brown, Ebony Young and Monicka Turner; 4 great grandchildren: Dominique Brown, Solomon Brown, Josiah Brown and Malakai Lagasca, and a host of family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Shirley Mae Turner

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Turner. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you experience much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. As you mourn the passing of your loved one, please keep in mind that Jehovah God has made the provision of the resurrection for the dead. Many asleep in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of the Christ, and they will come out of those tombs to life everlasting, John 5:28,29 May you find much comfort and strength from the promises of God, and may your precious memories of Shirley stay alive in your hearts.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM