

Shirley Marie Mahoney

February 14, 1935 - September 9, 2013

Shirley Marie Estelle Mahoney was one of seven children born to the late Harry, Sr. T Mary Josephine Mahoney on February 14, 1935 in Washington DC.

Shirley was very protective of her siblings at a young age. Around five years of age she went back into their burning house trying to help save her brothers and sisters. Despite her disability she had a very good memory; she would remember people and events that no one else could. Shirley loved to sing and could recall most of the words to old songs. Her most favorite songs were: "End of The Road" and "One in A Million". Shirley liked dancing, bowling, and watching TV game shows. She was not camera shy, when taking her picture she would give a great big "smile".

She is survived by: Her brother, Daniel Mahoney; Sister-in-law Mary Mahoney; Brother-in-law Leroy Freeman, SR; and a host of nephews, nieces, and other relatives and friends.

She leaves to reunite with her father, Harry Mahoney, Sr.; Mother, Mary Josephine (Hawkins) Mahoney; Brothers, Harry, Jr. and Joseph; and sister, Mary Ellen Freeman.
