

Shirley A. Miller

November 15, 1955 - June 6, 2014

SHIRLEY A. THOMAS, daughter of the late Sheria Boston and Alvin Thomas, was born on November 15, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on June 6, 2014 after a brief illness. She received her education at Forest Park High School in Baltimore. She was employed at University of Maryland Hospital for twenty years in the dietary department. Due to complications with her legs, she had to retire at an early age. There was no one more special to Shirley than her loving daughter Shenna. Shenna was her second right hand, her best friend, her confidante, her sounding board and traveling buddy, but most of all she was like a mother. Shirley loved to dine out and enjoyed good company. She also enjoyed shopping, cooking and crossword puzzles. When she was able, she loved dancing and had a great love of music. She had a great pride in all of her nieces and nephews; regardless of the occasion, Shirley had a prewrapped gift ready for them. She loved to cook and try new dishes from her favorite cooking shows. After her mother's death she took on the sole responsibility of taking care of her three brothers as well as her own daughter. She did a great job in doing so. They all loved and adored her. She had a strong belief in keeping the family together. Shirley was known to the family as the lady with nine lives. She loved life and lived each day to the fullest no matter how she felt. You could ask her "How are you feeling?", and she would reply "Oh I'm good" or "I'm alright". Shirley leaves behind: her daughter, Shenna; brother, Steven; close cousins, Lenora and David; two nephews, Steven Jr. and Shamar; three nieces, Myecha, Tyecha and Shamya. She is preceded in death by two brothers, Sheldon and Stephen. She also leaves behind cousins and very close friends. Shirley will truly be missed.

Many years ago, when I was younger, fortunately I had the experience of making an acquaintance with dear Shirley. I cannot say that she was a wonderful person because that would be a total understatement. Shirley was a beautiful person- heart, mind, and soul. She was a dear friend to me; she was incredibly trustworthy and was a loyal friend and that was just the beginning of her fantastic characteristics. She was a person that had humor; she had lots and enough to go around. I have many memories of Shirley and the one that often haunts my vision is her big smile and her talkativeness. Whenever I think of her, I shall remember all the good things in her and instead of crying over her demise, I shall smile because she lived life with a smile.

Condolences to the Miller family. Jesus has a promise at John 5:28-29. It is a promise that the Miller family will see their loved one again. Until that glorious time, please cherish the memories.
