

Shirley Newton

December 15, 1934 - February 25, 2002

Shirley Elaine Cloyd Newton, daughter of the late James and Mildred Harrell, was born on December 15, 1934 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was one of ten children. God called her home in the afternoon of February 25, 2002. At an early age Shirley accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior, and was baptized at Shiloh Baptist Church. Later, she became a member of Central Baptist Church. She was member of the flower circle and volunteer in different organizations in the church. Shirley was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She also attended Catonsville Community College. The Spring Grove State Hospital employed Shirley for Thirty years until she retired on disability. She was always willing to help others (Shirley couldn't keep still). She volunteered at Bon Secours Hospital in the mailroom, Saint Joseph Senior Center and also at the Waxter Center. Shirley loved arts and crafts. In 1952, Shirley met and married the late Harold Cloyd. From this union four children were born Gregory, Tyrone, Yvonne and the late Anthony. In the past three years, her health started to fail. She entered into assisted living housing, under the loving care of Mrs. Helen Dickerson. Three children, Gregory, Tyrone Sr. and Yvonne; and one son-in-law, Charles Jones, Sr.; four grandchildren, Towanda, Tyrone Jr., Charles Jr. and Charnee; and several great-grandchildren survive her. Shirley leaves to mourn two families. She was very special. From the union of James and Mildred Harrell, Shirley is survived by; six sisters, Alma V. Jarvis, Mary Caldwell, Delores Stewart, Lillian Harrell, Mildred Collick and Irene Thomas of New York; a brother, Edward Williams (two brothers preceded her in death, Jerome and Ravana Harrell). Shirley also leaves to mourn; her god-sisters, Mary Brooks and Mary Newton; nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
