May 9, 1946 - May 14, 2024

SHIRLEY HENDERSON ORE was called home to be with her Lord after a short illness on May 14, 2024. Shirley was born on May 9, 1946, to the late Roland and Florence Johnson Henderson.

Shirley attended Sollers Point High School in Turner Station, Maryland.

Shirley worked for many years at the Baltimore Sun Paper. She later became employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital where she worked until her retirement.

Shirley loved the Lord and enjoyed going to church. She was a dedicated member of the Interfaith Academy Church under the leadership of Pastor Beverly Corporal. She served as an usher, sang on the choir, taught Sunday School and then proudly became an ordained minister.

Shirley loved her children and grandchildren. She also loved spending time with her siblings. She looked forward to family gatherings.

Shirley had five children; one daughter preceded her in death, Ida Smithson.

Shirley was also preceded in death by her father Roland Henderson, Sr., Mother Florence Henderson, sister Sylvia Henderson, grandson Carlos Smithson, husband Reginald Ore and children's father John Smithson.

Shirley leaves to cherish her memory: four children, son Curtis (Joyce) Henderson and three daughters Mary Smithson, Laverne Smithson and Johnny Mae Smithson; sister, Theresa Jordan; brother, Roland (Patricia) Henderson Jr.; sister-in-law, Martha Williams; eleven grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren, three nieces, one nephew and a host of family and friends.
