

Shirley P. Hardy

June 18, 1936 - February 19, 2006

SHIRLEY PAYTON HARDY, daughter of Robert Wade Payton and Lillie Smith Payton, was born on June 18, 1936 in Greenville, North Carolina. Shirley Hardy had thirteen brothers and sisters. She departed this life on February 19, 2006 after a brief illness. Shirley Hardy was educated in Ayden, North Carolina and attended Ayden High School. In Grifton, North Carolina, Shirley attended Jump and Run Baptist Church. Shirley Hardy was a faithful employee of Phillips Security Company in Baltimore, Maryland. Shirley Hardy was married to Ulysees Hardy Sr. Out of this union seven children were born, Ulysees Jr., Linwood, Anthony, Dempsey, Kathy, Antonio, Rita and Vickie. Out of Shirley's union with Clyde Davis, Rita Hardy Davis was born. Shirley Hardy enjoyed listening to Biblical scriptures, often shared by a devoted granddaughter, Victoria Hardy. Shirley Hardy collected antique furniture and also loved to eat southern foods. Shirley's son, Antonio Hardy had a special relationship with his mother. She will be truly missed. She leaves to cherish her memory: five sons, Antonio Hardy, Ulysees Hardy Jr., Linwood Hardy, Anthony Hardy and Dempsey Carlton; two daughters, Rita Hardy-Davis and Kathy Hardy-Williams (daughter, Vickie Hardy preceded her in death). Shirley is also survived by her sister, Arizona Payton; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, friends and family.

“ Although I didn't personally know Mrs. Hardy, I wish to extend my deepest sympathy to the family. When we lose a loved one, we lose so much. We miss their voice, their beautiful smile, and the tender moments we shared with them. Unfortunately, death is a universal tragedy that touches all of our lives sooner or later. It was never meant to be, and God promises that soon he will end all sorrow and death forever. 1st Corinthians 15,26 says, "As the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". May your cherished memories bring you comfort, and may the promises of Jehovah God give you a sure hope for the future of being reunited with your loved one again.###imported-begin###R Johnaonr###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.###imported-begin###Carter###imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
