

Shirley Ann Phillips

September 29, 1946 - September 19, 2014

SHIRLEY A. PHILLIPS transitioned on September 19, 2014 in Baltimore, MD at 67 years of age. She is survived by: her father, Charles P. Craig; three children; Marsha A. Phillips, James L. Phillips, and Barbara A. Cannon; four sisters, Barbara A. Craig, Tammy A. Craig, Deborah Gaines and Phyllis P. Sorillo and two brothers, Gregory Craig and Steven Craig; five grandchildren, Cortney D. Smothers, Shimere B. Phillips, Troy C. Smothers, NaShey D. Ingram, and Timmia L Cannon; seven great-grandchildren; sister-in-law, Erma S. Craig; and a host of other loving family members and friends. Shirley was born on September 29, 1946 in Baltimore, MD to Charles P. Craig Sr. and Gertrude Craig. She received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. Shirley married James L. Phillips in 1966. Shirley worked in private health care until her retirement in 2006. Shirley loved to shop with her sister June Carey at the local (thrift) shops and often visited the neighborhood capers. She also loved to shop on the Home Shopping Network. Shirley also loved to do experimental "cooking" but her family especially enjoyed her corn fritters and sweet potato pies. She had her own style of telling stories with the family. For example, she was known to say she was in a car accident with a potato truck and a potato fell out of the truck and into her mouth, and this is why she loved potato chips. She was also an avid fan of Michael Jackson and Tom Jones. Although Shirley was a woman of few words when it came to emotions, we know her heart was as big as they come.

“ I am very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. The fond memories of your loved one will help you get through this sad time and God's sure promise to mankind is that God "will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away-Rev.21:3,4
