

Shirley R. Robinson

February 11, 1939 - October 26, 2006

Shirley McDuffie-Robinson, daughter of the late Alfred and Ethel McDuffie, was born February 11, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life after a lengthy illness on Thursday, October 26, 2006. She received her education at Dunbar High School. She was employed as a domestic engineer for several years. She married Earl Robinson on November 4, 1958. Her only son James preceded her in death. Shirley was baptized at an early age, and attended Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Black; then the New Pilgrim Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. J.R. Halsey; and presently was a member of the Greater Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Reginald Thomas, where she was a member of the Kidz Closet Ministry until her illness failed her. Aunt Shirley was a very devoted wife to Uncle Earl; an extremely loving mother to her son James and to her foster children, Michael, Marvin, Michelle and John; a wonderful sister, aunt, cousin, neighbor and friend to so many people. Aunt Shirley was one of the most giving people you could meet. She would give of her, time, her home, her wisdom, always feeding somebody, an ear to just listen, but most of all her love! Aunt Shirley will be so dearly missed. She leaves to forever cherish her memory: her husband of forty-eight years, Earl; her sisters, Lula McDuffie, Susan Thomas both of Baltimore, Md. And Aldonia Brown of New Jersey; her four foster children; her mother-in-law, Reatha Robinson of Wilmington, N.C.; three sisters-in-law, Bernice Callier of Wilmington, N.C., Eddie Clenden of New York and Bessie Jenkins of Florida;

one brother-in-law, James Callier of Wilmington, N.C., a very devoted niece and nephew, Paul and Joyce; three other nephews and five nieces; her goddaughters, Mary Brockington and Latesha Wooden; several great-nieces and nephews, cousins, and so very many other family and friends.

“ To the Robinson family, please accept my condolences. At times like this it seems difficult to find comfort. May you be comforted with the resurrection hope. Jesus demonstrated this at John 11:38-44 with his friend Lazarus. We also have the assurance from Isa 26:19 which says, ..."your dead ones will live...they will rise up." May these scriptures bring you consolation during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation.
(2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.###imported-begin##Carter###imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Robinson's ! I am sending my condolences to you all in losing Ms. Shirley. Death hurts when one of our loved ones die. The bible helps to get through this difficult time of life. May knowing that others cares make it a little better to deal with. Our heavenly father knows how we are feeling and is there to comfort us as the bible say at 2Cor.1:3. Our future will be much better because no one will ever die as the bible say at Rev.21:3-4, no more death , tears, pain, all things will be made new. I look forward to that time. May the future be bright for you all as strenght come from our creator. My fellow feeling. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##
