

Shirley J. Richardson

January 24, 1947 - July 6, 2015

SHIRLEY JUNIOR RICHARDSON, the son of the late Shirley Richardson and Everta Arrington, was born January 24, 1947 in Nashville, North Carolina (NC). He departed this life on Monday, July 6, 2015.

Shirley received his formal education in Nashville, NC School System.

He was nurtured in a Christian home and at an early age accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior. Shirley was an active member of the church.

In December 1956, Shirley traveled to Baltimore, Maryland. Shirley worked many years at the Nelson Company in Sparrows Point until his retirement. He was a vital part of the opening and management of the Universal Social Club where he spent over twenty-five years of his life. It was there he found his home away from home after many days of hard work. His friendly personality and smile earned him the nick name "Slick" by his family and club friends.

Shirley made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. He loved sports and was a loyal Pittsburgh Steelers and a New York Mets fan.

What a beautiful life he led. What a beautiful life lies ahead of him because this is not all on this side of the River Jordan. What an extraordinary memory he leaves behind. His walk in the spirit tells us that we must continue to minister where he left off. His crown is now ready and all he has to do is have Jesus place it on his head.

May the Lord be praised for the life of Shirley Junior Richardson whom He loaned to us.

He is survived by: two children; one daughter, Ms. Denise Tisdale and son Dr. Leroy Nickles; one daughter-in-law, Dr. Monique Nickles; five grandchildren, Ronald, Isaiah, Ayden, Lea and Lenox; four sisters, Lucille Arrington, Everta Arrington, Dollie Arrington and Gloria Arrington; three brothers, Larry Arrington, Walter Arrington and Gunetha Richardson; and a special friend, Ms. Brenda Garris; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
