

Shirley Jackie Rivers

October 11, 1941 - November 12, 2010

Shirley Jackie Rivers, (affectionately known as Suh by her children) was born on October 11, 1941 to the late James and Corrine Howard in Washington, D.C.

She departed this life after a short illness on Friday November 12, 2010 at Harbor Hospital.

Shirley was baptized at an early age at Providence Baptist Church in Washington, DC. She attended Anthony Boone Elementary School and Randall Senior High School.

Shirley was employed as a Janitor for the Baltimore City Public School System. She worked in the Housekeeping Department at Montgomery ward Department Store. In her later years, she worked at Folgers Bakery in the Brooklyn Community.

Shirley met and married the love of her life, Frank Rivers and they then moved to Baltimore City from his union were three children; Ruby, Lisa and Frank, Jr.

Shirley was very outspoken. She said whatever was on her mind. She was very loving and caring to everyone she met. She didn't mind opening her home to anyone who was in need of someplace to live. Shirley loved her family very much. They will surely miss all the family oriented affairs such as birthday parties, cookouts and family dinners. The biggest occasion was her and Franks Anniversary of which they celebrated forty-seven years of marriage on June 22, 2010.

Shirley leave to cherish fond memories her loving and devoted husband Frank, two daughter; Ruby and husband Raymond Rucker and Lisa; one son Frankie and wife Yvonne, one step daughter Dorothy, one step son Ronnie, Grandchildren; Antoine, Anthony, Startish, Lawanda, Antoinette, Shervawn, Yateshia, Lamer, Yanika, Anthonia and Sean, a host of step grandchildren, twenty four great grandchildren, daughter in law, Elizabeth, one sister, Delores Jones, niece and nephews, one God son; Alonzo Smith, five special friends; Andrea Green, Mary Moore, Charlette Johnson, Geraldine Felder and Yalonda Folson; and a host of other family and friends. Shirley was predeceased by two-step sons; Ben Franklin and Stanley, two grandsons; Ben Franklin, Jr. and Dajuan; one great granddaughter, Yasmine.
