

Shirley Ruth Jackson

July 5, 1936 - November 18, 2003

Shirley Ruth Jackson, daughter of the late Dorothy Davis and Samuel Davis, was born on July 5, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed her life on November 18, 2003 after a lengthy illness. Shirley was married to the late Edward Jackson in the early 1960's. Shirley received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She lived her life taking care of elderly people and taking care of two grandsons. She was a longtime member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church. Shirley made numerous friends wherever she went and during her many trips to Atlantic City. She was a true and devoted friend. She leaves to mourn: three daughters, Shirley Tyler, Renee Tyler and Tanya Lassiter; three sons, Stanley Davis, William Tyler and Wayne Jackson; two sisters, Jean Clark, Jeanette Hodges; three brothers, James, Herbert and Charles Tires; one living uncle, Herbert Ward; twenty one grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends. Shirley was a beautiful woman of many beautiful qualities. She was a friend, a homemaker, a financial provider, a grandmother and most of all a Mother. She has given much in a world that lacks so much, and she is very much appreciated. Today she is honored and forever dignified in the ranks of Motherhood.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
