

Shirley Parker Smith

April 16, 1938 - January 22, 2018

Shirley Parker Smith, 79, of Henrico was born April 16, 1938 to the late Eleanora Alexander and Lewis Parker in Richmond, Virginia. She went to the Master in heaven above to receive her crown of glory on January 22, 2018.

Shirley received her formal education in Richmond Public Schools in Richmond, Virginia. She accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at Fourth Baptist Church at an early age.

Shirley Mae Parker was united in holy matrimony with her love Richard L. Smith in Richmond, Virginia at Union Hall. Their union was blessed with three children.

She was employed by Adams Camera Shop as a Developer until she came home to be a housewife in 1962. In her leisure, she enjoyed spending many many hours with her grand and great grandchildren, whom she adored. Shirley was a loving, kind and considerate woman who loved family. She was a caring wife, mother, grandmother and friend and was indeed one of the most precious gifts God has given us.

She will be united with her parents, brother, Sterling Parker; granddaughter, Mikayla Smith; and a devoted stepfather, Raymond C. Alexander that preceded her in death. Shirley leaves to cherish her loving memory: a loving and devoted husband, Richard "Peter" Smith; daughter, Katrina Branch (Sheila); sons, Anthony Smith Sr. and Jerome Parker (Sheila); six grandchildren, Orenthal Golden, Markel Parker, Grace Ebony Parker, Jasmine Smith, Travonte White (Teonna) and Anthony Smith Jr. (Nicole); six great grandchildren, Shamont Golden, Caleb Golden, Shamiah Golden, Dajah Bynum, Denard Carrington and Thaimani Smith; three devoted friends, Rose Mayo, Sherida Parker and Letha Rice; and a host of other relatives and caring friends.

My prayers are with you and the family. I remember my mom Margaret driving by the house and she would pull the car over and they would talk about school and Adams camera shop and would talk to your grandmother it is hard to believe God has taken both of them home mom died in Oct 2017.
