“ I send my condolences to the family of Shirley at this most difficult time. The passing of time will not ever erase your pain, but it will become a little easier to bear. Reflect on your precious memories of her, and the good times you shared together as a family; something death can never diminish. Pour out your hearts to your heavenly father. Let him know how you feel, and he will give you the comfort that you need to help you to carry on. Read the comforting words found in the bible, which tell us that there will be an end to sickness and death and all tragedy. Scriptures such as Isaiah 25:8 which lets us know that Jehovah will soon swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Also Rev 21:4 which says that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, because these former things will pass away. Also put faith in the resurrection hope found at John 5:28,29 which tells us that all those in the memorial tombs will one day hear Jesus's voice and come out. Read about actual resurrections that Jesus performed found at Mark 4:38-43, Luke 7:11-15, and John 11:11-44. Reading such verses can give us much comfort, and a wonderful hope to cling to. I pray that you are comforted, and given the strength to cope with your pain.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
