

Shirley Winchester

November 19, 1962 - April 26, 2010

Shirley Winchester daughter of the late Sharpless Winchester Jr. and Rachel Winchester-Butler was born November 19, 1962 at the Salem Hospital in New Jersey. She was the seventh of nine children. Shirley known affectionately by all as "Moose" received her high school education at Eastern High School. After high school she was employed with the state Correctional facility as a Correctional Officer. After working in corrections Moose's love and passion for children lead her to change her career path to work with children as a teachers aid at the Dallas F. Nicholas Elementary School. After working for the school system Shirley started caring for children in her home as a day care-provider. Prior to Shirley experiencing arthritis that caused her to have severe leg problems Moose enjoyed playing basketball she was very energetic. One of her favorite things to do would be to play cards with her best friend Patricia known as Pinky and her three always desire Sophyia Colston and a Granddaughter known as baby Khiley. Shirley loved taking care of her granddaughter. Even on days where she was feeling at her worst she still found the strength and time for her grandbaby Khiley. Shirley was preceded in death by her father the late Sharpless Winchester Jr., her sister Sherry Winchester, her three nephews Melvin Harrison, Andrew Taylor, and Shaheed Boyd, She leaves to mourn her Mother Rachel Winchester-Butler, three sons Joshua Carrol, Ronald Hall, and Carrdai Butler, six sisters Louise Moore, Rachel Winchester, Theresa Jones, Bernadette Butler, Jane Weems, Claudia Wood, one brother Sharpless Winchester III, three brothers-in-law Lacey

Butler, Fred Weems, and Rhodell Wood, 41 nieces and nephews, a very special friend Lemuel Carr, a hhost of aunts, uncles, cousins, life long friends and adopted sons Rashad and Rashiek.
