“ First I would like to offer my condolences to her family. Next I would like for everyone to know that we spent a lot of weekends working together here at BCPSS and she was one of the nicest, funniest and intelligent people I have ever met. She kept me laughing and we always had something good to talk about with each other. She will be missed by her loved ones. Peace and Blessing!##imported-begin##Kevin E. Brandon SR##imported-end##

“ I first want to pay my respect to the family, may the lord comfort you in this time of sorrow. This was a vibrant young women who loved life. When she came to know God, she instantly fell in love with Him, she came to know him in such an intimate way, that words cannot explain,the love that she had for God begin to show up on the outside and would flow out on the people, and it would change your life, the joy that she had was wonderful .Much love to the family.##imported-begin##Sylvia Hill##imported-end##

“ *May peace and comfort be to Shontelle's family during this time of loss however, be comforted to know that we will be reunited with her one day as we worship our eternal King! Shontelle was my closest sister while she was here in Oklahoma City and I will ALWAYS have a place in my heart for her. She had an incredible personality and an awesome sense of humor; she was a joy to be around and truly desired to bring people to the Lord - she was a true evangelist! She also took my daughter under her wing and was her "homey"; she loved my daughter, Briana, as if she were her own. She will truly be missed here on earth and we look forward to seeing her again some day. Love to all of her family and friends - just know that she is in a MUCH better place than we are! “ Although I didn't personally know Shontelle, please accept my condolences to your family. Death is indeed a heartbreaking situation, something so hard to come to grips with. I wish you much comfort and peace from our heavenly father, Jehovah, and his son, Jesus Christ. They are the ones who really understand what you are going through, and that is why they made the greatest sacrifice of love of all time, by Jehovah sending his precious son to die a horrible death so that we might be done with sickness and death, and also by Jesus being willing to make this sacrifice in our behalf. As he himself said at John 10,10; I have come so that they might have life, and have it in abundance. Isaiah 25,,8 tells us that God will swallow up death forever. and Daniel 12,2 tells us that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. They will hear Jesus voice, and come back to life. John 5,28,29. Please be comforted in knowing that one day Shontelle will open her beautiful again. Take care family, and may your precious memories sustain you until the glorious day of the ressurection.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. The sorrow we feel when we lose someone we love can seem to go on forever. It may seem like there is no source of relief. Be assured that there is one that will provide us with relief, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" ( 2 Corinthians 1:3,4). We only have to ask. He promises us that there will soon be an end to death, (Rev 21:3,4) and a resurrection for those who have fallen asleep in death (John 5:28,29). These promises were made by the "God who cannot lie." Titus 1:2. I would love to discuss these and other wonderful provisions with you. Please contact me if you are interested.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I wanted to let Mika, Mommy, and the rest of the family know how much I'm sorry for their great loss. She was beautiful. My prayer is that as you all go on daily that God's peace would keep your hearts and minds through her loss. There's never truly any words a person can say that will soothe you, but through the hurt and pain of it all; God can and will sustain you. Luv You guys and God Bless!###imported-begin##Nicole Bynum###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible can give us much "comfort and hope"- Romans 15:4 One such example is John 5:28,29 which reads- "Do not marvel at this,because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29 May you receive much comfort and strength from this loving hope. And may you draw close to Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ. (Psalm 83:18 and Luke 1:32)###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ May I send my fellow feeling to you all. Losing a love one like Shontelle breaks the circle of life . The bible say that the time is coming when no one will ever die , Isa.25:8.Imagine the happiness to be had when our dead love ones are resurrected back to life on a paradise earth in the near future. May the comfort from our heavenly father keep uplifting your all in life journey ahead.###imported-begin##Lillian Crosby###imported-end##

“ I learned of this today and am in tears. Things I will remember about Shontelle: the way she could make everyone in the room feel comfortable and at ease in new situations, the twinkle in her eyes when she had a secret, the way every "th" was pronounced as a "v", the way she put her all into everything she did and nothing was too much trouble for a friend. She taught me to laugh at myself and not take things so seriously. She taught me to be myself and the friends i end up with will love me for me. thank you shontelle for the time and laughs we shared.##imported-begin##Michelle Rudesill##imported-end##

“ While I didn't know Shontelle personally, I'd like to send my love to Lamika, her mother, and the rest of the family, as you all deal with the loss of such a beautiful young woman. May the God of Peace comfort you in your time of bereavement and may His face shine upon you. God bless.##imported-begin##Michael Armstrong##imported-end##
