Sidney was so special to all of his cousins who loved him so much and communicated with him regularly. He was a Jazz aficionado, a martial arts master, a great mechanic, and a very gentle soul. His wonderful soul remains in our hearts and our memories . He will be eternally missed and loved by family and all who knew him. James Edward Grandison III

“ Looking back loved the years and the only memories I can speak the warm and gentle conversation we had. The way that only Sydney could, holding respect for all and his demand was to have you hold a high demand as he had for a level of respect that held. What a wonderful gentle and kind person he is. He was one to touch the hearts of those he spoke to. I know he will be missed , loved, remembered in the hearts of many. My heart goes out to the family and to the good extended family he has.
