

Baby Sidney Blake Williams

September 25, 2012 - January 5, 2015

SIDNEY BLAKE WILLIAMS, also known as “Sid”, was an exciting , amazing, extraordinary little boy. Sid was brought into this world on the day of September 25, 2012.

Sydney was known to spark the room and make you smile a thousand smiles. Sid's phases such as “turn it up”, referring to the radio music whenever it was loud and Sid loved to dance, play with his toys, talk, laugh, smile and yes yes yes. Everyone that knew him knew he was a “cry baby.” Sydney was a very bright, strong, energetic little man. “The Sid Man” had the soul of an old man, everyone used to say he has been here before.

Sidney enjoyed having a big brother figure in his life, even though he thought he was the big brother. No matter where “Sid” went, all of the kids loved him. Sidney would pull on all the little girls hair, then they would tell on him and he would act like hi did nothing. All of the little fellas loved to play with Sid and would ask if he could come over and play. Sidney enjoyed many birthday parties, brushing his teeth and being nosey.

Sydney loved his brother Sean, a.k.a. “Brother”. Sid always chased, played, laughed and hugged his brother everytime he saw him. Sidney and little Sean had so may great memories together like, traveling to the zoo, wrestling, jumping off the walls, flipping and rolling all around and of course Chuck E.

Cheese!

Sidney loved his Daddy to pieces. He was so amazed by the way his dad would tickle him, play with his ears, teach him, guide him and just be his shadow. Sidney admired his Dad and followed in his footsteps. Sid loved that his Dad drove trucks and enjoyed “just chilling in the truck with dad.”

Sidney could not stay away from Mommy's back. That was her “Little Man.” Sidney enjoyed traveling over all his adopted “aunts” houses, especially Chenelle's. That's where all the kids were! Sidney and his mother were one of a kind, made for each other. He is a miracle brought down to earth and changed her life forever. Sidney enjoyed being the man on the scene with Mommy. Anyone that knew Sid knew that if Mommy wasn't staying, he wasn't playing.

Sidney loved both of his parents unconditionally, to the moon and back. Weekend outings with Mom, Dad and Brother was what made Sidney happiest.

Sidney leaves to mourn: his parents, Sharon Dickerson and Sean Williams, Jr.; brother, Sean Williams III; sister, Kynn Gilliam; grandparents, Sharon Renee' Dickerson, Sheila Johnson and Sean Williams Sr. (Michele); three great-grandparents, Inez Harley, Sylvia Johnson and Delores Williams; and a special friend, Austin Frazier that was his closest buddy ever; and a host of other relatives and friends.
