

Silas "Butch" Cooper

October 28, 1950 - February 3, 2012

MR. SILAS "BUTCH" COOPER, at the age of 61 entered into eternal rest on Friday, February 3, 2012 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Born October 28, 1950, in South Carolina to Mary Wilson (deceased) and Sylvester Cooper (deceased), he spent most of his youth in South Carolina with his grandmother before settling in New York City. He worked for the Department of Sanitation for many years as a Production Worker. Butch was a hard worker, generous, and loved his family and friends. Everyone that came in contact with Butch remembered him by his great sense of humor and witty sayings. He will also be remembered for his four favorite dishes; peaches with biscuits, Jiffy corn muffin with milk, corn flakes, bananas with milk; let's not forget the Grits...Yum... like he always said "I might die broke but not hungry".

The love, memories and legacy of Silas Cooper continues to grow and will forever be cherished by his four children, Bernice Blakeney, Silas Lucas, Antonio Rivera, and Jennifer Rivera; a step-daughter, Renee Lucas; a son-in-law, John Blakeney; two sisters, Rose Cooper and Alice Minter; a brother-in-law, Stephen Minter; two uncles, Silas and Paul Wilson; two aunts, Amelia and Doretha Wilson, an ex-wife, Mary Lucas; 14 grandchildren, eight nieces, and nephew and host of great nieces, great-nephews, great-great nieces and nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ May prayer and the reading of the Bible, God's Word, be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. (Isaiah 12:2; John 5:28,29)

M. Johnson - February 04, 2012 at 04:05 PM

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is very difficult to cope with. But you can take some comfort in what the Bible says at John 11:25 which states, "Jesus said to her: 'I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.'" I hope this message brings you some consolation.

Lewis - February 04, 2012 at 11:31 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
