

Silas Washington

February 2, 1945 - April 13, 2016

Silas “Big Glo” Washington, son of Joseph Lee Washington and Evelyn Desmon, was born February 3, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was called home on April 13, 2016, from a lengthy illness.

Big Glo attended Baltimore City public schools.

Big Glo had several jobs in the Cooking field where she developed her famous coleslaw recipe. Big Glo was a devoted cook for a private home for 15 years. Glo was a care provider at Guilford Avenue.

Big Glo made an impact on everyone she met with her dazzling greeting “Hello, Darling”. She was a very compassionate and understanding person to everyone she met and everyone knew no matter what time of day it was, we could always call on “Aunty Glo”. Big Glo was a pillar of the community and owned several rental properties. She will always be remembered for her style and huge personality. Big Glo had a great sense of humor and was always ready to say something to shock anyone.

Big Glo enjoyed attending Pillar of Truth Church with her niece, Earline Francis.

She proceeds in death, her brothers and sisters, Vernon Francis, Robert

Francis, Dorothy Lucas, Yvonne Thompson, Patricia Cole, Thomas Washington, and Earline Brown. She leaves to mourn: her sisters, Lucille Vanlandinham, Josephine Washington, Gloria Clark, Tania Jones, and Charolette Bell; a host of her nieces and nephews including, Keisue, Nathaniel, Annette, Earline, Sonia, and Darlene; friends including, Emanuel and Cousins; and a close friend, Michael, who referred to Big Glo as his "Queen".
