

Snell McGriff

March 14, 1922 - May 15, 2004

Snell McGriff was born March 10, 1922 in Hawkinsville, Georgia to the late Sally and Snell McGriff. Snell received his early education in the public schools Hawkinsville, Georgia. Upon entering early manhood he moved to Jacksonville, Florida where he met and married Viola Clark. Their union lasted fifty-nine years, until his demise on May 8, 2004. In 1945 Snell and Viola moved to Baltimore, Maryland. The Bethlehem Steel Company gainfully employed him for thirty-nine years. Snell retired in 1985. After he retired, he and Viola enjoyed their leisure years by traveling...visiting family and friends. Snell was a most honest, straight forward and caring man who loved and adored his family and friends. He had an uncanny ability to make you smile. He was an avid sports fan and especially loyal to his favorite team, the Baltimore Orioles. Snell was president of the Homestead Montebello Community Association. He chaperoned many elementary school field trips to numerous historical sites. He also volunteered to transport players to many sports events. He was a faithful and loyal member of the Ray of Hope Baptist Church. He was always willing to respond to any request from his dedicated minister Rev. Charles Franklin. He leaves to cherish his memory his loving and devoted wife, Viola McGriff; one son, Col. George Benjamin IV; one daughter-in-law, Mamie Benjamin of Laguna Hill, California; two grandsons, Tyrone Benjamin of Laguna Hills, California and George Benjamin V of Gilbert, Arizona; one great-grandson, Kyle Dewitt Benjamin of Gilbert, Arizona; one goddaughter, Vern Austin of Baltimore, Maryland; eight nieces; eight nephews and a host of other relatives and close friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my sincere condolences. The Bible offers us encouragement at John 5:28,29 which speaks of a resurrection where "... all those in memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Continue to find comfort in those words.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
