

Sodonia Christine Jackson

March 3, 1943 - May 24, 2009

On Sunday, May 24, 2009 at 5:50p.m. SADONIA CHRISTINE JACKSON made her transition from this earth at Future Care Rehabilitation, 2400 N. Charles Street, Baltimore, Maryland to her heavenly home. She was born-again believer. At an early age, she accepted, loved and trusted her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Chris, as she was affectionately known to many, was born on March 3, 1943. She was the oldest daughter of Evelyn and the late Paul Odoms. She attended public schools in Baltimore City and received her high school diploma from the Anne Arundel County School System. At the age of seventeen, she met the love of her life, Bernard L. Jackson. They were married on January 14, 1960. Their union lasted forty-nine years. During her adult life Chris was a homemaker and mother to daughters Cassandra and Kim Bell and "Ganma" to her grandchildren. She was a Sunday School Teacher and held a "Good News Club" in her home for the neighborhood children teaching them about the Lord, Jesus Christ. After the girls were older, Chris was employed at Bon Secours Hospital for fifteen years. She was hired as Laboratory Maid and was promoted to Laboratory Reporter. In her desire to further her education in the medical field, Chris attended Baltimore City Community College and became a Certified Technical Phlebotomist. Chris was known for her gentleness and compassion in drawing blood from each patient she encountered. Chris also loved to travel with family and friends; whether it was to Ocean City, Maryland or to the Islands of the Caribbean. She leaves to cherish her memory her beloved husband, two daughters, seven grandchildren, her mother, two brothers, two sisters, on uncle, nieces, nephews, four sister-in-law, three brothers-in-law, and a host of other relatives and friends. Chris will be truly missed and loved by all who knew her.

Tribute Wall

“ Sodonia Christine Jackson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out by means of a resurrection" (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the promises contained in this word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from that wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for that loving hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. The Bible describes death as 'the last enemy'. What a wonderful day it will be when our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah by means of his son Christ Jesus, brings our 'enemy' to nothing! (1Corinthians 15:26)##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM