

Sollie Whitfield Jr.

December 14, 1948 - December 21, 2016

Sollie Whitfield Jr., son of the late Sollie Whitfield Sr. and Anna Lee Whitfield, was born on December 14, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was called home to be with the Lord on December 20, 2016 after a lengthy illness. Sollie received the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at an early age. He was baptized at the Central Church of Christ.

Sollie received his education from Baltimore City Public Schools. After graduation in 1968, he began working at the Port Hole as a dishwasher; later becoming a chef. In 1997, Sollie was recognized in the Towson Times newspaper for his "Homestyle Crab Soup" recipe, and you could not have tasted anything better! He furthered his career working at Poor Richard's and The Crease restaurants for many years, until his retirement in 2010.

Sollie really took pride in his cooking, everything was homemade. He enjoyed cooking Sunday dinner at home for his family, however, the kitchen would be a complete mess, but the food would be delicious.

Sollie enjoyed spending time with family and friends on Durham Street; with lots of jokes, which most of the time were corny, but we laughed anyway. His favorite football team was the Baltimore Ravens. He always had a good number to play, and now his daughter is hooked on playing numbers.

Sollie's brother David Whitfield, William Whitfield, Arthur Whitfield, and only sister Brenda Ewing preceded him in death. He is survived by his only living sibling, Earl Drew; Delores Peaks mother of his two children. Sollie Whitfield !!! and Cantrice Whitfield; granddaughter, Joyce Whitfield, Annie Whitfield, Tierra Fowlkes; grandson, Kater Vaughn and daughters-in-law, Leslie A. Whitfield and Crystal Simmons-Whitfield. He is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Cherish the fond memories of your dear loved one. Have faith in the Kingdom Jesus taught his early followers to pray for at Matthew 6:9. This Kingdom will do away with our enemy, death, once and for all. Then we can look forward to another important action, the resurrection of millions of dead loved ones who have the prospect of growing to perfection under God's Messianic King. What great family reunions lay ahead. Until then let us run this race for life with endurance.
