

Solomon Lenville Floyd Sr.

September 11, 1938 - December 12, 2019

Solomon Lenville Floyd, Sr. departed this life peacefully on Thursday, December 12, 2019. He was born to the Late John W. and Elsie Floyd on September 11, 1938. Solomon was the fifth child out of seven siblings. He was educated in the Accomack County, VA Public School System. He was affectionately known as Buddy Boy, Uncle Buddy and Dad.

Solomon worked at the Harrison Corporation for twenty years. He was later employed with Northrop Grumman (formerly Westinghouse) where he retired after more than thirty-five years of service.

Solomon met and married the late Ms. Hattie L. Savage, and to this union five children were born. After her death, he met and married Ms. Naomi D. Jones, and to this union four children were born.

Buddy Boy was a builder! He owned many properties and built numerous houses throughout Maryland, and helped many pastors build churches. Most notably, he helped his son, Dr. Ryan Floyd, acquire property for Triumph Church of Baltimore where he served faithfully as a trustee and Sunday School Superintendent.

Buddy Boy was a very generous and kind-hearted man. He helped anyone in need. He always carried snacks and his favorite honey buns in his truck. Buddy Boy loved to collect things. If there was anything that you needed for your home, you would find it in one of Dad's closets! Whenever you saw him, you would be sure to see him with his favorite hat, ring, and the little notebook in his pocket where he kept a running record of how much money he loaned, and who owed him. Buddy Boy particularly loved his grandchildren.

Later in life, he met and married Ms. Martha Montgomery. Together, they enjoyed traveling, taking rides to the Eastern Shore, and attending services at Pleasant Zion Baptist Church.

He was a man of few words but impacted the lives of many!

He was preceded in death by his two sons Raymond and Tyrone; his siblings: Viola, John Jr, Samuel, Ronnie Mae, and Nathaniel. He leaves to mourn and cherish his memories, his wife, Martha Floyd , sons: Solomon Jr., Nathaniel, Pastor Ryan (Shenira), which he affectionately called him, and Michael; daughters: Beverly Ann Fulmore (Danny), Lady Rosey Huger (Pastor Damion Huger) Robin, Rachel Weems (John); two step-daughters: Tuesday and Wendy; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends
