

Solomon Martinez Owens

November 2, 1978 - September 4, 2014

Solomon Martinez Owens, fondly known as “T-Boo” was the son of Rev. Lynda Gayle Owens and the late Earl Dickerson. He was preceded in death by his father and sister, Aljawanna Nicole Owens.

He leaves to cherish his memory two daughters, Taejah N. and Tae-Liyah N. Anderson; one son, Taemon S. Brown; mother, Lynda Gayle Owens; sister, LaTisha Owens; two brothers, Larry Owens and Wendell Dickerson; devoted friend, Rachelle Brown; a host of other relatives and friends.

T-Boo had special affections for his sisters and his kids. Everybody loved T-Boo and T-Boo loved everybody. He loved to dance and he loved all sports. He attended John F. Kennedy High School where he was a very accomplished athlete. Upon graduation in 1996, T-Boo became an employee of the Virginia Department of Juvenile Justice. He was a faithful and valued employee for over seventeen years, often recognized for his work and dedication. T-Boo loved a good laugh and was quick witted. He was a joy to be around. He had many funny and poignant sayings. One of his sayings, a favorite of his was.... “WHO GONNA CHECK ME BOO?”

T-Boo, of course we will miss your contagious smile, the hardy laughter. We will have to catch ourselves and remember that your phone we can no longer dial, but deep in our hearts, we know you will hears us when we call out your name, so stop playing games in heaven long enough to answer, for we will be waiting on YOU Dancer. Your kids, as we watch them grow, we will tell them all the stories of you we know. Tell Nicole, we haven't forgotten her way of making us all feel we were her favorite. Kiss her for Mom, hug her for Larry, and nod your head for Big Sis, Tish.

We will see you later, yes later, we can't rush God, and neither can you! Don't forget how much we love you too. The Family

“ To The Owens Family:

My God Be Your Comfort During Your Time of Sorrow. Love knows no boundaries even those that divide heaven and earth. So whenever you feel sad, Just remember your hearts are connected together. As Gods comfort comes we have to assurance of his loving care and as abiding peace that is beyond all understanding. As hope abides within us, we carry the certain expectation of good things to come and the promise of seeing our loved one again. May the lord peace and present be your deepest comfort and your certain hope.

To T-Boo:

You will truely be miss. Word can't express how I feel. I will miss you talking trash to me and making me laugh. I love you and I know you in Heaven Smiling down on the the love everyone have for you. R.I.P until we meet again. I Love you Friend....

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

From the many comments, he was truly special!

“ First of all, may God be with Rev. Owens to hold and keep her strong during this time in her life. Solomon, I know that you are resting in peace because that was just you a peaceful person. I know that you have touched so many lives with your big smile and silly jokes from all the comments made on FB. I am so sadden to hear about you leaving this earth so suddenly at such a young age and feel that it is so unfair. I will always remember you as the smart one out the group (Ricky, Corey, & Jeffery) back in those days, not afraid to do the right thing and walk away because you knew your mama didn't play; like mine :). You were a great football player, wasn't afraid to dance in front of no one and had speed like lighting. I will always remember and miss you Solomon and I smile when I say your name because I can see you saying call me “T-Boo”.

Your childhood friend forever, Tiawana
