

Sonia A. Henson

October 20, 1944 - December 11, 2010

Sonia Ann Henson was born on October 20, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Hercules and Esther Williams. She quietly left this earth on December 11, 2010 surrounded by her family just as she would want.

Educated in the Baltimore City Public School system, Sonia graduated from Dunbar Senior High School. Always taking care of others, she found joy in being a daycare provider for many years. After leaving the daycare industry, she found a new love for seniors. She was a home health aide until her illness prevented her.

Affectionately known as “So-n-So” and “Eyes”, Sonia loved being around family and friends. Several times a years she and her friends would host cabarets at the Poet Lounge and Sand town Recreation Center. On Sundays, she would cook family dinners that left everyone stuffed and smiling. She kept herself surrounded by her grandchildren. As a tradition, every Christmas Eve she would rent several rooms at the Embassy Suites sot that all her grandchildren could be with her. We are anticipating continuing the tradition this year. She always greeted someone by saying, “I love you and God loves you.”

She was preceded in death by her husband William Larry Henson and daughter Sonia “Peaches” Henson. She leaves to mourn her three children

Ruth Williams, Antoine (Ramona) William and Dominic Williams Sr.; her other “daughter” Charlette Johnson. Her siblings Yvonne Spellman, Joyce (Herman) Smith, Hercules Williams Jr., Brenda fowler, Esther (Maurice) Blow and Leon (Deroshia) Stanley; 14 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Despite this difficult time, you can be comforted by the wonderful promise stated at John 5:28, 29; "Do not marvel at this, but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." Jesus is the faithful and true Witness and cannot lie; therefore we can have full confidence that this promise that our deceased loved ones will live again will definitely come true.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
