March 14, 1957 - June 13, 2015

Sonia K. Moyd, daughter of the late Christopher and Geneva Moyd, was born on March 14, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was called to glory on June 13, 2015.

Known as Kat, she was born and raised in Baltimore City and graduated from Lake Clifton High school and continued her education at Strayer University and Morgan State University. Sonia was a hard worker and held many jobs but her happiest times were spent at the Enoch Pratt Free Library where she worked for 13 years. Sonia retired from Pratt and continued as a volunteer for an additional two years. One year volunteering for a total 880 hours.

Sonia had multiple hobbies that she was sure to pass on to the children in her life. These hobbies included reading, crochet, and baking but above all, Sonia loved God. Her church home was Ark Church where she was extremely active. Sonia was a member of multiple ministries including sign language and missionary but her favorite was being a Sunday school teacher where she shared her knowledge and love of God. Sonia Also shared candy. Lots and lots of candy.

She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Tamara P. Jones; one grandson, Dejuon K. A. Baker; two sisters, Katrina Burroughs and Linda C. Moyd; three brothers, Christopher K. Moyd, Arnold F. Moyd, and Pastor Arthur J. Moyd, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Tamara,
My co-worker and I were remembering the good times we share with your mom at Port Discovery when Pratt had a library there. She has been in our prayers since, and now so are you and your family.

“ I had an opportunity to work with Sonia in Human Resources at the Pratt Library. She was such a warm and loving person. She always wore a smile even when she wasn't feeling well. She would always call me Miss Brown. She knew I collected dolls and she made a special gift for me to hang. Everytime I look at it, I will remember her. Rest in Peace. You are now free.
