

Sonny Junior Brown

November 27, 1961 - December 22, 2005

SONNY JUNIOR BROWN, was the second child of four children (one preceding him in death, Helenia "Lisa" Davis) born to Margie Lee Brown. "Shorty Brown," as he was so widely known to many from various walks of life, suddenly passed on December 22, 2005 after battling a life-long illness which he could not overcome. Born, raised and educated in the public school system of Baltimore, Shorty Brown received his G.E.D. and went on to work as a laborer, before settling down to explore his delights as a computer operator. He leaves to mourn his passing: one loving daughter, LaKisha Brown; one granddaughter, Amaya Thomas; his loving mother, Margie Lee Davis; two brothers, Jerome E. Brown and Will Davis; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Anita Adams Davis and Ms. Lavenia E. Thomas; plus a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and a loving grandfather, Mr. Thomas R. Brown; several very close associates and many, many others whose lives he touched in his own special way. However sad we may be at his passing, we rejoice in God's ever-giving mercy to those in need. Sonny met and accepted Christ as his Personal Savior as a young teenager, under the pastoral leadership of the late Rev. Joseph S. Ridgell, Sr. of P.T.L. Worship Center, Baltimore, Maryland.

Tribute Wall

“ Sonny Junior Brown

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Sonny Junior Brown

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. The Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This give us assurance that Jesus cares for you during this time of your grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection. (see John 5:28,29)##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. 2Corinthian 1:3-4##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Mr. Brown. I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for the loss of your father, brother and friend. Though a stranger to your family, I am not a stranger to the pain death causes and for that I wanted to share an encouraging scripture with you to help ease your pain. One in particular is found at John 5:28,29. Here Jesus is telling us of a promise of his. It reads: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Now in order for one to come out, they would have to be alive. Well, this is just what Jesus promises us that he is going to do. He'll call for those in the memorial tombs and they will come out. How wonderful a time this will be for all of us who has lost a loved one. May we all keep our minds fixed on the time when this promise is fulfilled. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM