

Sonya Smith

November 10, 1971 - July 21, 2004

Sonya Yvonne Smith, was born to Ronald D. Ragins and Gwendolyn Smith-Dixon in Baltimore, Maryland on November 10, 1971. She departed this life on July 21, 2004 after a brief illness. Sonya received her education in both St. Michael's and Baltimore, Maryland. She was employed at University of Maryland Hospital, and Old Country Buffet. She was a member of The Empowerment Temple AME Church. Sonya was a kind and sweet hearted person. You could always find her doing something for someone else. Or joking with family and friends. Or acting like one of the kids with her children, nieces and nephew. On that same token if you knew Sonya you knew that she was never one to hold her tongue. Nor was she ever one to back down from anything. However whatever she did for those she cared about, she did it with a open and loving heart. Sonya was a great mother, who loved her children and grandchild with all her heart. Her granddaughter was the love of her life. Her nieces and nephew were her joke buddies. She never missed and opportunity to let her siblings know that she loved and appreciated them. And the love she had for her parents was nothing less then unconditional. Sonya leaves to mourn: her parents, Ronald Ragins and Gwendolyn Dixon; stepfather, Wilmer Stevens; four daughters, Kendra, Niesea, Bria and Ajia, (one son, Korey, proceeded her in death), one granddaughter, Keiasia; two sisters, Charlotte and Ebony; two brothers, Antuan and James; two brother-in-law, Stephen and Phillip; three nieces, Essence, Nya, Shateara; one nephew, Di'Shon; a devoted friend Peter (Skip) Doran, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
