“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Thomas. Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ I wish to send my sincere sympathy to the family of Sophia. Losing a loved one in death is so difficult to come to terms with, and it is something no family should have to go through. Jehovah God is the source of all life in the universe, and he is a hater of death. He desires noone to die or lose a loved one in death, this is why he sent us his precious son Jesus , to undo the hurt that Adam brought upon us by his disobedience. Romans 5:12 brings out how his rebellion brought sin and death upon all mankind. This is why Jesus died for us and paid the ransom price to buy back what Adam lost; that is eternal life for himself and us, his offspring. So 1st Cor 15:22 gives us this hope: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Jesus himself said at John 10:10 "I have come so that might have life, and have it in abundance." One day all who have died in Jehovah's memory will come back to life, because John 5:28,29 promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out." One day Sophia will open her eyes in life once again.##imported-begin##R
