

Sophronia Delano Peters

August 8, 1929 - February 17, 2023

SOPHRONIA DELANO PETERS, affectionately known as “Sister,” was born on August 8, 1929 in Ottoman, Lancaster County, Virginia. She was the sixth sibling of nine born to the late William and Iver Sydnor. Preceding her in death were six brothers William, Harold, James, Hubert, Gilbert and Ralph and two sisters Ercel and Rever.

Sophronia moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1943. She graduated from Carver Vocational-Technical High School in 1950 where she majored in nursing. While she was at Carver she met the love of her life, Curtis O. Peters. Sophronia and Curtis got married on September 29, 1956 in Baltimore, MD. They were together for 58 years until his death on November 30, 2014.

Sophronia did private duty nursing, worked at London Fog coat factory and worked for the Baltimore County Public School System. Her hobbies were sewing, traveling and dancing. Sophronia was a member of The Pleasant Yacht Club where she was a First Mate who enjoyed sailing on her boat “The Miss Sixteen.” She was a fun-loving person who enjoyed spending time with her family and friends.

She leaves to cherish her memory: nephew, Andre Sydnor (Angela); nieces, Iver Howell (Larry), Terri Jones (Bryant), Lori Dee Stewart; her special friend, Yasmin Gail Shepard; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
