

Squire M. Cox

August 14, 1920 - November 19, 2008

Squire M. Cox was born on August 13, 1920 to the late D.W. Cox and Lorianna Loftin in Jones County, N.C. He was educated in Kingston, N.C. He relocated to Baltimore in the early 1940's. Squire was employed with Domino Sugar. He was a faithful and hard working person. After being employed for 35 years, Squire was honored with a plaque in 1980, highlighting appreciation for his dedicated services. In 1962, Squire and Frances Jones were united in holy matrimony. Together, they lived a fulfilling life, full of joy and happiness. They enjoyed the years they spent together. Where you saw one, you saw the other. They traveled throughout the United States and abroad. They especially enjoyed family times together. Everyone admired their special bond; They just couldn't get enough of each other. Squire and Frances Cox were devoted to family. They listened to their children. They provided love, nurturing and guidance. They didn't always give their children what they wanted, but they always somehow seemed to provide what was needed. Squire united with the New Metropolitan Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Dr. Lawyer L. Swinson. He remained a faithful member until death. On Wednesday, November 19, 2008, Squire M. Cox went home to be with Lord. He leaves to cherish his memory four sons, one daughter, 33 grandchildren, 44 great-grandchildren, 15 great-great-grandchildren, Pastor Dickens and his New Metropolitan Baptist Church Family.

“ Let me express my heartfelt sympathy to the family of "Cox" and of Frances. They are grandparents whom I learned so much about life from their wisdom, the way they lived their lives, and the love they gave me. I apply those gifts they gave me to others almost every day. And every time I think of them it is with a smile from some wonderful memory I had, of which there are so many. And it gives me so much peace and comfort to know their spirits are together again forever, as things should be. I wish I could be in Baltimore at this time to be with the rest of my family; alas we (myself as the family who as "adopted" me) down in Texas wish all the family and friends (which for them seems to include the entire world) love and peace to all of your hearts now and in the days to come. May God Bless and Comfort each and every one of you touched by this wonderful couple.##imported-begin##Robert Edwards##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. The sorrow you are experiencing now will soon be alleviated. God promises at John 5:28, 29 that all those in the memorial tombs will soon hear his voice and come out. He also lets us know, at John 3:16 and John 17:3 what we must do to witness this grand event. May this wonderful promise give you comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr Cox. I My deepest sympathy during your time of mourning. Please find some comfort in knowing that the time will come when we never have to face the loss of a loved one. Rev 21:4..."And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore". Put your trust in Jehovah God and he will give you the much needed strength to endure.##imported-begin##Debi##imported-end##
