“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family at this most difficult time. It's been almost 3 months since he passed away, but I can imagine how hard this must be for your family. Death is something that we can never get used to. But soon all of this pain and sorrow will be a thing of the past, because Jehovah promises: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth; and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." Another comforting scripture is found at Rev 21:3-5 which says, "Look! "The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. "And God himself will be with them. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more; neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." And the one seated on the throne said, "Look! "I am making all things new.! May you be comforted by these wonderful promises, as well as the promise of the resurrection, which will restore the life back to our loved ones who have died. Acts 24:15, John 5:28,29 May your precious memories of Stancil help you to endure in the days to come.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
