

Stanfield Walter Bedford

December 15, 1940 - October 11, 2003

Stanfield Walter Bedford was born to Walter and Geneva Bedford on December 15, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland. He passed away on Saturday, October 11, 2003 after a brief illness. Stanfield attended schools in Howard County, Baltimore City and in Michigan. In 1975, he graduated from Bay College of Maryland with an Associate in Arts degree in Data Processing. He was employed at and eventually retired from Baltimore City Public Schools. He enjoyed working with children so much that he most recently served as a crossing guard in Baltimore City. Stanfield was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on August 25, 1981. He zealously preached in the Christian Ministry until death. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of 18 years, Muriel Bedford; his son, John Nathaniel Bedford; his parents, Walter and Geneva Bedford; three brothers, Edward Bedford, Theodore Bedford and Reginald Bedford; two sisters-in-law, Mary Bedford and Barbara Bedford; and a host of relatives and friends. Stanfield will be remembered most for his always-present smile and his genuine concern for others.
