

Stanley Babb

July 19, 1945 - July 19, 2021

STANLEY LESTER BABB, son of the late Willie Mae and Ernest L. Babb, brother of the late Thelma R. Greenidge and Frances A. Babb, was born on July 19, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the youngest of four children.

Stanley received his formal education in the public school system of Baltimore, Maryland where he graduated from Baltimore City College High School. He retired from Domino Sugar Refinery where he worked for forty years.

At an early age, he accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to the former Stella Brice. Through this union, they were blessed with three children. He was a thoughtful and devoted husband and family man who loved and cared for his children. He enjoyed keeping up with current events, reading the newspaper each morning while drinking coffee from his favorite mug.

On Monday, July 19, 2021, Stanley departed this earthly life for eternal life in God's heavenly kingdom.

Stanley leaves to cherish fond memories: three loving children, Darryl, Gail and Tonya; three grandchildren, Ashley (Travis), Nicole and Michael; four greatgrandchildren, Taniya, Tyleah, Savannah, Samara; one brother, Charles Babb; and a host of other relatives and friends
