

Stanley Lee Bradshaw Jr.

April 1, 1952 - October 11, 2024

Stanley Lee Bradshaw, Jr., was born on April 1, 1952, in Dinwiddie, Virginia, to Stanley Bradshaw, Sr. and Addie Foster Bradshaw. He was preceded in death by both parents, brothers, Gilbert, Irvin, James and David; his sister, Sadie Goodson (Bernard), nephew, Ronnie; and former spouse and dear friend, Arlene Brooks.

Stanley received his formal education at Southside Training School in Petersburg, Virginia, specializing in Shoe Repair.

Stanley was Christian and believed in his faith.

He was employed by Drew's Shoe Repair in downtown Richmond for decades as a Master Cobbler/Shoe Repairman, before purchasing the location he managed in 1998. He loved his trade and was exceptionally passionate and proud of his craftsmanship and business. His diverse customer base varied in ages, professions, ethnicities and etc., most having been patrons of his service for several decades. Although, he retired in 2022, due to illness, he is still highly regarded by his customers, many who would call simply to check in on him.

Stanley enjoyed playing cards, movies, shopping, sports, history, James Brown music and spending time with family and friends, especially his great grandchildren, notably, Daniel, Dylan and Dimitri.

He was so many things to so many people, but was consistently known for his witty, dependable, compassionate, smart, easy-going, consistent, independent, direct, responsible, giving, loving, and generous nature, as well as, being a father figure and provider.

He leaves to cherish his memory, a devoted daughter and grand-daughter, Shameaka and Ki'Era Trent, respectively; three sons, Sharod Bradshaw (Nicole), William Carroll, and Roshawn Trent; six siblings, Ella Holloman (Kenneth), John Bradshaw, of Dinwiddie, VA, Bertie Carrington (William), Willie Bradshaw, of Petersburg, VA, Lillie Carrington (Ernest), of Lawrenceville, VA, and Charles Bradshaw, of Chester, VA; nineteen grandchildren and eight great grandchildren, all of whom reside in Virginia, except Eric Trent, of Texarkana, TX, and Cory, Malia and Ares Greene, of Houston, TX; a host of nieces, nephews, other loved ones and dear friends.

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Stanley "Stan" Bradshaw. Stan repaired and restored my shoes for years. Many benefited from his skill and craftsmanship. He was a quiet and kind gentleman with a sweet spirit. He was well respected in the business community. Stan will always be fondly remembered.

Praying the Lord's comfort will bring you peace, and sweet memories will keep your loved one close in your heart.

“ *To the family of Stanley,
Lord, as we mourn the loss of Mr. Stanley, we also celebrate the life that was lived. We thank You for the memories, the love shared, and the impact Stanley had on our lives. Help us to find hope in the promise of eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ. May we take comfort in knowing that Stanley is now in Your presence, free from pain and suffering.*
