

Stanley Joseph Burroughs

July 19, 1943 - April 22, 2004

Stanley Joseph Burroughs, affectionately known as “Stan The Man,” beloved son of Margaret Burroughs Starks and William Booker, was born on July 19, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland. He had two brothers, Leonard Foote of Reisterstown, Maryland and Vernon Foote, who predeceased him. Stanley departed this life on Thursday evening, April 22, 2004. Stanley received his education in the Baltimore City public school system. He worked at various places of employment, including more than twenty years of service with Hagen trash Removal Company in Baltimore County. He labored diligently until forced to retire on medical disability. Devoted to his mother, Stanley was happy, funny and always wore a big smile. He loved having a good time with his family and friends, and you could always find him ready to lend a helping hand. He was guardian angel to many, and gave what he had unselfishly. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Margaret Starks; his brother, Leonard Foote and sister-in-law, Jackie Foote; niece, Tora Foote; nephew, Leonard Foote Jr.; and a host of beloved aunts, special cousin and friends.

“ To the Burroughs Family: I send my deepest regards for the lost of your dead loved one. Even in this world of death, and crime you can find comfort. The Bible tells us at Romans 15:4, that "through the comfort of the Scriptures, we might have hope." So, I again send my condolences and wish the family well.##imported-begin##Brittany Adams##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I offer my condolences to you on the passing of your loved one. At times like this the scriptures can and have proven to be of great comfort. One scripture that comes to mind is the one found at John 5:28,29 where we are promised to see our loved ones again by means of a resurrection. Please read that scripture along with Revelation 21:3,4; Isaiah 25:8,9.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
