

Stanley R. Anderson

December 28, 1930 - April 25, 2004

Suddenly on Sunday, April 25, 2004 Stanley R. Anderson, beloved son of the late Zelma Dorsey (Biggus) and Stanley P. Anderson, departed this life. He was born on December 28, 1930 in Frederick County. He was the devoted father of Darrie Anderson Neely and Dwain Anderson. Rudolph, as he was so affectionately known, attended the Frederick County schools. After his schooling, he joined the United States Army and served during the Korean War for four years. After his tour of duty with the army, Rudolph met and married Mary Coleman. From this union, two children were born, Darrie Anderson Neely and Dwain Anderson. Rudolph was truly a family man and he maintained various positions at the A&P Bakery, where he was employed for over forty years or more. He retired from the A&P Bakery in 1991. His marriage to Mary C. Anderson ended in divorce. Rudolph was a mild-mannered person, but he loved to talk. He enjoyed being around his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. They seemed to have brought him such great joy. He had a very pleasant smile and a very kind heart. As for himself, Rudolph was a very plain person...nothing extravagant for him. He would always say, "Give him the simple things in life," and he would be the happiest person around. He will be sorely missed. In 1991, Rudolph was a very plain person...nothing extravagant for him. He would always say, "Give him the simple things in life," and he would be the happiest person around. He will be sorely missed. He leaves to mourn their loss: a devoted daughter, Darrie A. Neely; son, Dwain Anderson; grandchildren, Michelle Wilson, Shamirra Neely, Christopher Neely Jr., Shameila, Dacha, Dwain Jr., Saraiah and Shaila Anderson; five great-grandchildren, Makeda and Saadi Johnson, Christopher Neely III, D'Najah Winkler and Roderick Scribner; son-in-law, Christopher Neely Sr.; daughter-in-law, Patricia Anderson; three brothers, Stanley, Lawrence and Charles Anderson; five sisters, Charlotte, Thelma, Estelle, Bethel and Catherine; (one sister and one brother preceded him in death); aunt, Catherine Biggus; uncle, Lawrence Biggus; four sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. The Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for you during this time of your grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection. (see John 5:28,29)##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family and Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To The Anderson Family: I send my deepest regards to the family on the lost of a dear, close loved family member. However, you can find comfort in the Bible, where it speaks of a resurrection of dead loved ones at John 5:28,29. Again, I send my regards, but if anyone feels and type of grief you can always find comfort from the scriptures.##imported-begin##Brittany Adams##imported-end##
