“ I've known Stanley (Stan) for a very long time. We met when I was a very young woman and continued a friendship that has lasted decades. Throughout our winding journey of life no matter where we left off we could pick right back up when we reconnected. I am saddened that I will not be able to attend the services today. I will keep the family in my thoughts and in my prayers.

Sincerely,

Wynne (Miss Wynne)

“ I will miss my long time friend who seemed more like family with each passing year. I will lovingly remember heart-felt conversations at the kitchen table while something delicious was being prepared. I marveled at his carpentry skills and his creative approach to designing living spaces for his friends and family. I will miss his warm and resonant voice that was so welcoming and kind. As I write this, I am tearing up just thinking about the love that he had for his children, grandchildren and his family. The world lost a geniunely sweet and loving man and heaven gained a new angel. I love you Stan to eternity.
